

The Twelve Pampered Days of Christmas

*Christmas is too special
To celebrate just one day.
So I have a fun little game
For the two of us to play.*

*For each of the next twelve days
You'll receive a little gift.
I hope they'll make you smile
And give you a little lift.*

*This is gift number one
As I'm sure you've guessed.
With each one you open
I hope that you'll feel blessed.*
